ALL SAINTS DAY November 1, Tuesday is a Holyday of Obligation

What is a Holyday of Obligation?

In addition to observance of Sunday as the "Lord's Day," Catholics are also obliged to keep certain holy days according to country or region.

In the Catholic Church, one commits serious sin by not attending Mass on any Sunday of the year or on a holy day of obligation. The National Conference of Catholic Bishops has named the following as Holydays of Obligation in the USA.

- 1) Christmas, December 25
- 2) Mother of God, January 1
- 3) Ascension (sometimes on a Sunday)
- 4) All Saints, November 1
- 5) Assumption, August 15
- 6) Immaculate Conception, December 8

Confirmation 8 Parent/Teen Notices:

1. Several Families who were not at one of last week's three meetings should call Sister Meribeth for an appointment.
2. Parents please volunteer by November 28! Table Facilitators for Confirmation session #1, January 8 are still needed. 7 facilitators are needed each month. (4 openings)
3. The first written Confirmation 8 assignment was emailed last week. Turn in due date is October 31. If you did not receive the email call Larry at the REO.
